Shri Guru Tegh Bahadur Sahib Ji's 350th Martyrdom Anniversary
(Shahidi Samagam Centennial Year).

Date & Time: 24th February 2026, from 11 am to 11:30 am

The 350th Shahidi Samagam (martyrdom anniversary) of Guru Tegh Bahadur was commemorated with great devotion and respect across India and around the world. Guru Tegh Bahadur Sahib Ji, the ninth Guru of Sikhism, sacrificed his life in 1675 to protect religious freedom and human rights.

In our college, this occasion was also observed with great respect. A special video presentation about the life, teachings, and sacrifices of Guru Tegh Bahadur Sahib Ji was shown to the students. Through this video, students learned about his bravery, his dedication to protecting religious freedom, and his valuable contributions to society. The program helped students understand the importance of standing for truth, justice, and humanity.

Guru Tegh Bahadur Ji sacrificed his life to defend the rights of Kashmiri Pandits who were facing religious persecution under the Mughal ruler Aurangzeb. His martyrdom is remembered as a powerful example of courage, selflessness, and commitment to religious tolerance. As we also played song during the event.

The 350th Shahidi Samagam served as a reminder of Guru Tegh Bahadur Ji's timeless message: to stand for truth, justice, and freedom of faith. His sacrifice continues to inspire millions of people worldwide.
